Registered Massage Therapist Stratford - Somebody who works with energy fields surrounding the human body or animal is called an energy healer. The fields of energy that surround living things have been known as qi, chakra body, aura body, chi, or the energy body. To an energy healer, the term is not as essential as the effects of working with it.

Healing with energy fields is an important part to whatever holistic healing plan for the reason that the energy fields surrounding our human body and the other stuff all-around us are closely related to our overall health. Energy work is related with the gateway of the Spirit. The Body Gateway is linked with physical healing, the Mind Gateway is connected to mental and emotional healing and the Spirit Gateway is linked with energy healing.

Numerous energy healers think that most dis-ease originates from blockages of energy and could be healed by releasing blocked energy inside the body. For example, respiratory ailments can feature a blockage of energy around the lungs. When an energy healer unblocks that particular area, your respiratory issues must decrease or vanish.

Depending on the system they work with, energy healers function in various ways. The basics are as follows: re-routing, charging with light, exorcising negative fields and unblocking. Your local spiritual bookstore or metaphysical store might be able to put you in touch with an energy healer if you feel this could be for you.
