Naturopathic Doctors in Stratford - Richard Bartlett, a Naturopath and chiropractor developed a transformative healing system known as Matrix Energetics in the year 1997 right after he had undergone a life-changing event. Mr. Bartlett discovered that he could reinstate the emotional, physical, spiritual and mental balance in his clients just by touching them gently with focused intent. As an added bonus, he could correct misalignments which had troubled some of his clients for many years. Richard discovered that he could teach anybody this particular method that combines subtle energy together with quantum physics, focused intent, and active imagination.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns within the resonating matrix can become altered from physical or emotional injury. These interruptions could lead to embedded perceptions or habits that could block an individual from obtaining a condition of prosperity, health, happiness and various constructive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, shift these ingrained patterns and transform core beliefs in order to allow the individual to reach their objectives in order to create the quality of life and sort of life desired.

Matrix Energetics practitioners think that the restrictions are the cause of a person's issues and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics can instantly eliminate these restrictions. This healing system is believed to get rid of the causes of both temporary and chronic problems like for example scoliosis, fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches and muscle spasms among others.

The Matrix Energetics system is intended to stand alone. Several practitioners utilize it to enhance several healing methods even if it does not have to be at all combined with whatever other practice. One session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the customer and could transform her or his beliefs concerning the nature of disease, the healing process and the structure of reality. Commonly, recipients can feel a wave pass throughout their bodies because their previous view of actuality is changed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, time and space are not part of actuality. The consciousness of a person, according to the quantum theory, could affect how subatomic particles behave. As the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, which could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear in all places simultaneously and likewise move forward and backward in time. An individual's consciousness can affect these quanta to change emotions and physical matter. These views and this information have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are responsible for the changes that happen on the cellular level in the person.
